2017 CE Law Review: What to Expect During an Inspection

Come join the State of Ohio Board of Pharmacy during a CE Law Review presentation for the most current pharmacy law updates and to learn what is expected during an inspection.

Some of the CE Law Review topics will include:

- Fourteen-day limit for initial opioid fill and 90-day limit
- Functions of pharmacy technicians
- Mid-Level Practitioners
- Disposal of dangerous drugs
- Drug security and security of records
- Reporting significant loss
- Board's Right to Inspect
- What is expected during an inspection from the State of Ohio Board of Pharmacy

Who Should Attend?

- Pharmacists, pharmacy interns, pharmacy technicians, and pharmacy compliance specialists employed in retail/community based pharmacies or institutional pharmacy locations (hospitals/long-term care, etc.)

*Continuing education will be awarded to Registered Pharmacists only.

There will be two presentations at each location, see the dates below. You may select from a Retail/Outpatient Pharmacy or Institutional Pharmacy presentation. When you register for a presentation, please only choose one. Credit will only be given for one presentation.

Registration: To register, please email Susan King (susan.king@pharmacy.ohio.gov) with your name, the presentation you would like to attend, license number, NABP/CPE Monitor number, phone number and employer.
