DEA and Ohio Board of Pharmacy to Host Ohio Pharmacy Diversion Awareness Conference

Attention all Ohio Pharmacists:
Friday, August 2nd, and Saturday, August 3rd, 2024

The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) in partnership with the Ohio Board of Pharmacy (OBOP) is holding an Ohio Pharmacy Diversion Awareness Conference (PDAC) on Friday, August 2nd, and Saturday, August 3rd, 2024. This Ohio PDAC will be an 8-hour conference and will cover pharmacy burglaries and robberies, DEA recordkeeping, e-scripts, civil and criminal repercussions for failing to maintain records/inventories, OARRS, and much more. This conference will also provide all pharmacists who attend with 6.5 hours of law CE approved by the Ohio Board of Pharmacy. It should be noted the same agenda will be on both days, so pick which day works with your schedule.

The Ohio PDAC will be held at the Renaissance Columbus Westerville-Polaris Hotel, 409 Altair Parkway, Westerville, Ohio 43082. Below is the link to register for this FREE event. DEA Diversion Investigators from the Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Columbus offices will be around both days to answer any questions you have, as well as representatives from the OBOP will be present for any Ohio questions or concerns.

Register today for your free event and to receive 6.5 hours of continuing education credits!
